My name is Adriana Nicole, a 16-year old aspiring model, actress and musician. I live in the metro Atlanta area with my Mom and three siblings. My dream since I was 7-years old was to be a model and actress. My very first fashion show that I walked the runway was at that age. I even started taking piano lessons at that age, but dropped it. Recently I've resumed my lessons with a passion to get musically good enough to perform at my church choir. Currently I am in my last year of high school, taking classes online. After graduation my plans are to attend college here in the Atlanta, GA area. I have a love for babies and hope to pursue prenatal nursing even if my modeling career takes off. The most challenging part of being a teenager is the isolation I sometimes experience since I am in online school, not around my peers. It gets lonely at times. I want to keep my life busy in attaining my goals, but also desire to pursue friendships. Academically, I am almost finished completing my high school courses a year early with hopes of a 4.0 GPA. The next few months will definitely demonstrate how much all my hard work has paid off. I hope to see work credentials I can be proud of. The support from my loving family has given me so much courage to pursue my dreams.

The_Dreamer is what I go by but yes I'm her she me Takita lee published National and international Model of the DMV since I was about 7-8 I knew I wanted to walk for all kinds of Brands to be able to show of who I was.To walk the run way like Naomi Campbell Fierce confident and bold .To be the center of it all as I started out walking for my family church I then began to sing for the choir and my song was always heart felt.

But I didn't stop there I strive to be my best at all I felt I could and wanted to do and be

So I joined band I enjoyed ever but of it so I

Kept going back start out playing recorder Thrid grade year and by six grade I was a nerdy band geek playing Clarinet and writing short story's for the school paper no one really like me but I felt

Like if I could show them who I really was

And what I could really do they might I was a bit shy coming up but some where in me knew I just knew fashion was where I wanted to be a artist

I could do so much with my clothes that I wanted to show them off

So I model for church more and boom

Life made a turn and I become a mother and a wife

And felt like my dreams of mixing was out of the window .i Keep pushing myself to keep at it trying not to allow myself to think I wouldn't be good enough or I was to old and so on I allowed my thoughts to cloud the space of my creativeness

But then I got a tape on my shoulder say

Get back out there so I did some family cheer me on and some didn't but it was most definitely a challenge to know I might not have the surport from all the people I know the challenge of not being tall enough or big enough or maybe to old and no one would wanna show case my age

had I just keep going over the years and not had to re start to knowing how the world would look at me as a artist but I push on as I continue my journey I have been very will supported and loved by so many I have done a few music videos walked fashion shows and even hand pick for tv commercials and or tv shows I act in a movie and it has all been amazing I dream to continue my grow to become a bigger and better role model to all up and coming models in the industry I plan to keep pushing myself and express how much fashion means to me I'm very stylish in my own way people are always talking about my look and or styles I think I'm pretty sweet at wat I do you know but anyway I couldn't have done it but oth out my friends and family and the love and support of my fans I first thank god for everything he giving and walked me thru because you need thick skin to be a model or any kinda artist for the matter but I strive to become more of my best I have much more to learn so a few goals to start driving book more gets get more exposure get exposed to be my best as best as I can and to always show love to everyone Thank you everyone I'm very happy and horned and could do a lot of this with out the talent I work with thank for not giving up on me

Hello guys

My name is Ketrin and my stage name is CHECHINA

I am professional singer and songwriter from Russia

I have devoted my whole life to two things: music and marketing.

For a long time I wrote and made songs only for myself and did not show them to anyone. Then, as a student, I had my own band and we performed at various events with cover songs.

I always wanted to perform with my original songs, but I feared to admit that.

So I started to help other people: I began to direct creative performances, wrote several musicals and directed one whole musical with big team, wrote songs for other artists.

About a year ago I started writing songs for myself and releasing them.

You can listen them on spotify - CHECHINA.

It was also around that time that I started performing online. I enjoyed sharing my creativity with others. I signed contract as online host on UpLive App.

Thanks to my performances, I won two major international competitions - "The Gods of Rock" & "Worldstage", and also became a finalist in the "Yes2Malaysia" competition.

I almost signed contract with Sony Music Label but

February changed all plans in whole world so I had to start absolutely new life here in the US from zero point

Because I really love music, marketing and sharing with people I founded Music Label and production center "Flow Up". This is was my independent label where me and my team created songs and promo for other artists

I hope that one day I will make such label here in the US and will be greater than before and help a lot of people to make their dreams alive

What about me? My biggest dream is to share my creativity with the whole world and devote as much time as possible to creating songs, videos and shows

I really into singing and performing

Hope you will enjoy my arts, my songs, my videos

Tascha

My name is Marco aka Tascha, I'm 47 years old, crossdresser and make-up artist - specializing in the optical transformation of men into women.

For over 20 years I have supported others in their passion for crossdressing and all the beautiful things about "being a woman".

I live it to the fullest myself and am a very enthusiastic person, sometimes too perfectionist, always try to approach challenges optimistically and realistically and simply enjoy life in its many facets.

I would like to share my passion for life and all the beautiful sides such as travel, good food, great fashion, and all the small and big things that make life lovable and easy with others and if someone has lost this lightness is, I would like to help to find them again and to awaken them anew.

I'm a human being like everyone else, with dreams, desires and a lot of everyday problems and yet I want to try to create a small oasis where everyone can just be ER themselves.

Whilst I am a portrait photographer by inclination, I love the excitement and rush of covering Music. From large stages to tiny coffee shops, its the raw emotion and the quiet times between the notes which I find most exciting. I treat each artist and musical set as though I was taking their portrait and as such the emotion and the connection are most important to me.

I am a New Mexico based artist focused on photography. I have been working with local models and photographers for a decade now helping them bring their creative dreams to life by providing costuming, sets, and custom props generally all hand made by me. I have had the joy of being there to work with a wide variety of people. Since I have worked extensively on both sides of the camera I have the unique perspective that allows me to bring out the best framing, lighting, and vision to aid photographers in getting our goal shot along with the guidance of posing and other techniques to help models blossom into the character in scene. One of my main joys is seeing someone model for the first time and realize how fantastic they can be at it, seeing them come into a place of power and comfort makes it all worth it. I love breaking down what has become the traditional model type and showing anyone who walks into frame that they can absolutely be the person on that magazine cover.

For myself, the challenge of always putting my maker skills to the test by having so many different mediums I get to work with over the months to bring these images to life keeps it fresh and exciting to keep plugging away. I enjoy seeing the final product of our dreams and look forward to the many ideas just waiting to be thought up.
