My name is Thiago Acuna, I was born in 2013. I started playing soccer when I was 2 years old, I haven't stop ever since. I joined my club 3 years ago, it has been a great experience that has helped me develop great friendship as well as soccer skills.

My dream is to become a professional soccer player. I think it would be cool if people chant my name on the bleachers. CR7, Messi and Mbappe are definitely players I admire and I daydream about becoming like them one day.

Some of the challenges I face as an athlete are the weather, New England gets really cold during the winter, and transportation, sometimes my parents are busy and cannot take me to a soccer field to practice my shooting.

Soccer is a great sport, it is important to practice and have fun in the field.
