Amanda
Van Wezel

My name is Amanda van Wezel, I'm from 1998 living in The Netherlands. I've been dreaming of becoming a model ever since I was little. unfortunately I became chronically ill. At the time of my diagnoses I thought there were no more possibilities, but after training a lot and getting fitter I've reached a level where I can do what I like, even if it takes good planning. I can model, I can go to festivals, I can work, I can own my householdings, everything I thought I couldn't do anymore.. I can. now I'm living by the phrase YES YOU CAN. because I've seen that bears on the road are there to conquer.

Lucas Villamarin

My name is Lucas Villamarin, and I am an 9U open based baseball player. Baseball has been my passion since I was 5 years old and I love practicing and playing hard and smart.

I can successfully play many different positions in the field; I play short stop, first base, and outfield from time to time. But, my favorite and most played positions are 3rd base and pitcher.

My dream is to get to the MLB and someday become part of the Hall of Fame.

I was born and raised Newport Beach California. I am currently training at Art of Jiu jitsu in Costa Mesa California under professor GUI Mendes. I started Jiu jitsu at Trifuno under Professor Felipe Fogolin at age of 5 and I have been training everyday for the past 5 years. I also do wrestling and swimming to supplement my Jiu jitsu. Jiu jitsu is part of my life now. My goal in life is to become a black belt world champion and I'm working very hard towards my goal. I compete regularly and I'm planning to compete this year in Pan Kids 2022. Save my name cause I will be a black world champion.

Sylar Alcantara

My name is Sylar Alcantara, 10 years old, 4th grade student, a football player and a triathlete from the Philippines. I am also the Youth Ambassador of United Through Sports, an organization that showcase talents and skills of young athletes around the world. My dream is to represent my country in the World Cup. I know It's gonna be long shot for me, but with all the hard work, dedication and commitment, it can always become a reality. It is an equal opportunity for all. As an athlete and a youth ambassador, I am here to inspire kids to never stop dreaming and believing. We want a world that is inclusive of everyone and anyone who wanted to belong must feel that they have an opportunity to dream, grow and succeed. I am grateful to be part of the Athlete Magazine to continue to encourage not only kids but everyone, that with continuous hard work, dedication, self belief and love of what you do, anything will be possible.
