My little brother Abdiel Aponte is only 10 years old. He started skating at the age of 7 years old. One of the challenges he face was a coach telling him and I that Abdiel my be too late to play hockey at his age. We were told that most hockey players start at the age of 5 or younger. One thing Abdiel has that I have thought him is to never quit and to never let anyone tell him that he can't do anything. Next thing you know I had him on the ice giving it his all. In less than a year he is playing for a team and became a starter for his team. Other achievement that Abdiel has had is getting a hat trick as well as being an honorary guess at a battle of the badges for the boys & girls club where he got to drop the puck. Abdiel goals " is to always try to be the best at every I do never do less".

Brian Kelley

Brian Kelley is a junior golfer who lives in South Florida. Brian is currently ranked 3rd in the World with Under Armour Junior Golf and 21st with U.S. Kids, boys 8 for 2022. Brian has already had two Hole in Ones, and he's just eight years old!

At the age of eight months, he picked up his first club; by age two, he was hitting drives, chips, and putts at the range with his father. One of the many things that make Brian incredible is no one taught him how to golf. Brian learned to golf by watching the pros on TV. He used to sit on his dad's lap by the tender age of just six months old and watch golf for hours. His parents quickly realized Brian had a tremendous gift and got him out on the course. After just a few trips, Brian completed a full round of nine holes using all the clubs in his bag.

Brian's extraordinary talent led to Brian pursuing golf at every turn, making it impossible for his parents to keep him away from the course. By the time Brian was four, his parents registered him for his first junior golf tournament in Kansas City, Mo (where they lived at the time). Brian finished FIRST in that tournament. From there, it was time to make a decision, do they move to where he can play all year or stay in Missouri? Brian and his family moved to South Florida in the fall of 2019.

Since then, Brian has been featured on the local NBC affiliate, won numerous awards, and excelled in golf. Brian's dream is to compete at the

My name is Dion'Ta D. Irvin Jr. My family and peers call me TAY-TAY. I'm a 8 years old upcoming athlete, from Louisville, KY. I picked my first football up at the age of 3. I started out playing for the Louisville Steelers when I was 6, which is located in Louisville, KY as well. The following year I was given an opportunity to play for a traveling football team by the name of Louisville Dolphins. With my team mates and coaches I have learned discipline and brotherhood. I live by the slogan "TAKE YOUR LOSSES LIKE YOU TAKE YOUR WINS WITH YOUR HEAD UP AND CHEST OUT."

My goal is, to leave my mark on any field I am honored to touch. I want the world to know exactly who I am no matter the jersey I wear on my journey. And to make my mother proud on and off the field. To make my father (whom passed away before I was born in a car accident) just as proud from the sky. The world will know the name Irvin Jr. #88. I honor my jersey number due to the number having meaning (my father's birthday 8th month on the 8th day).

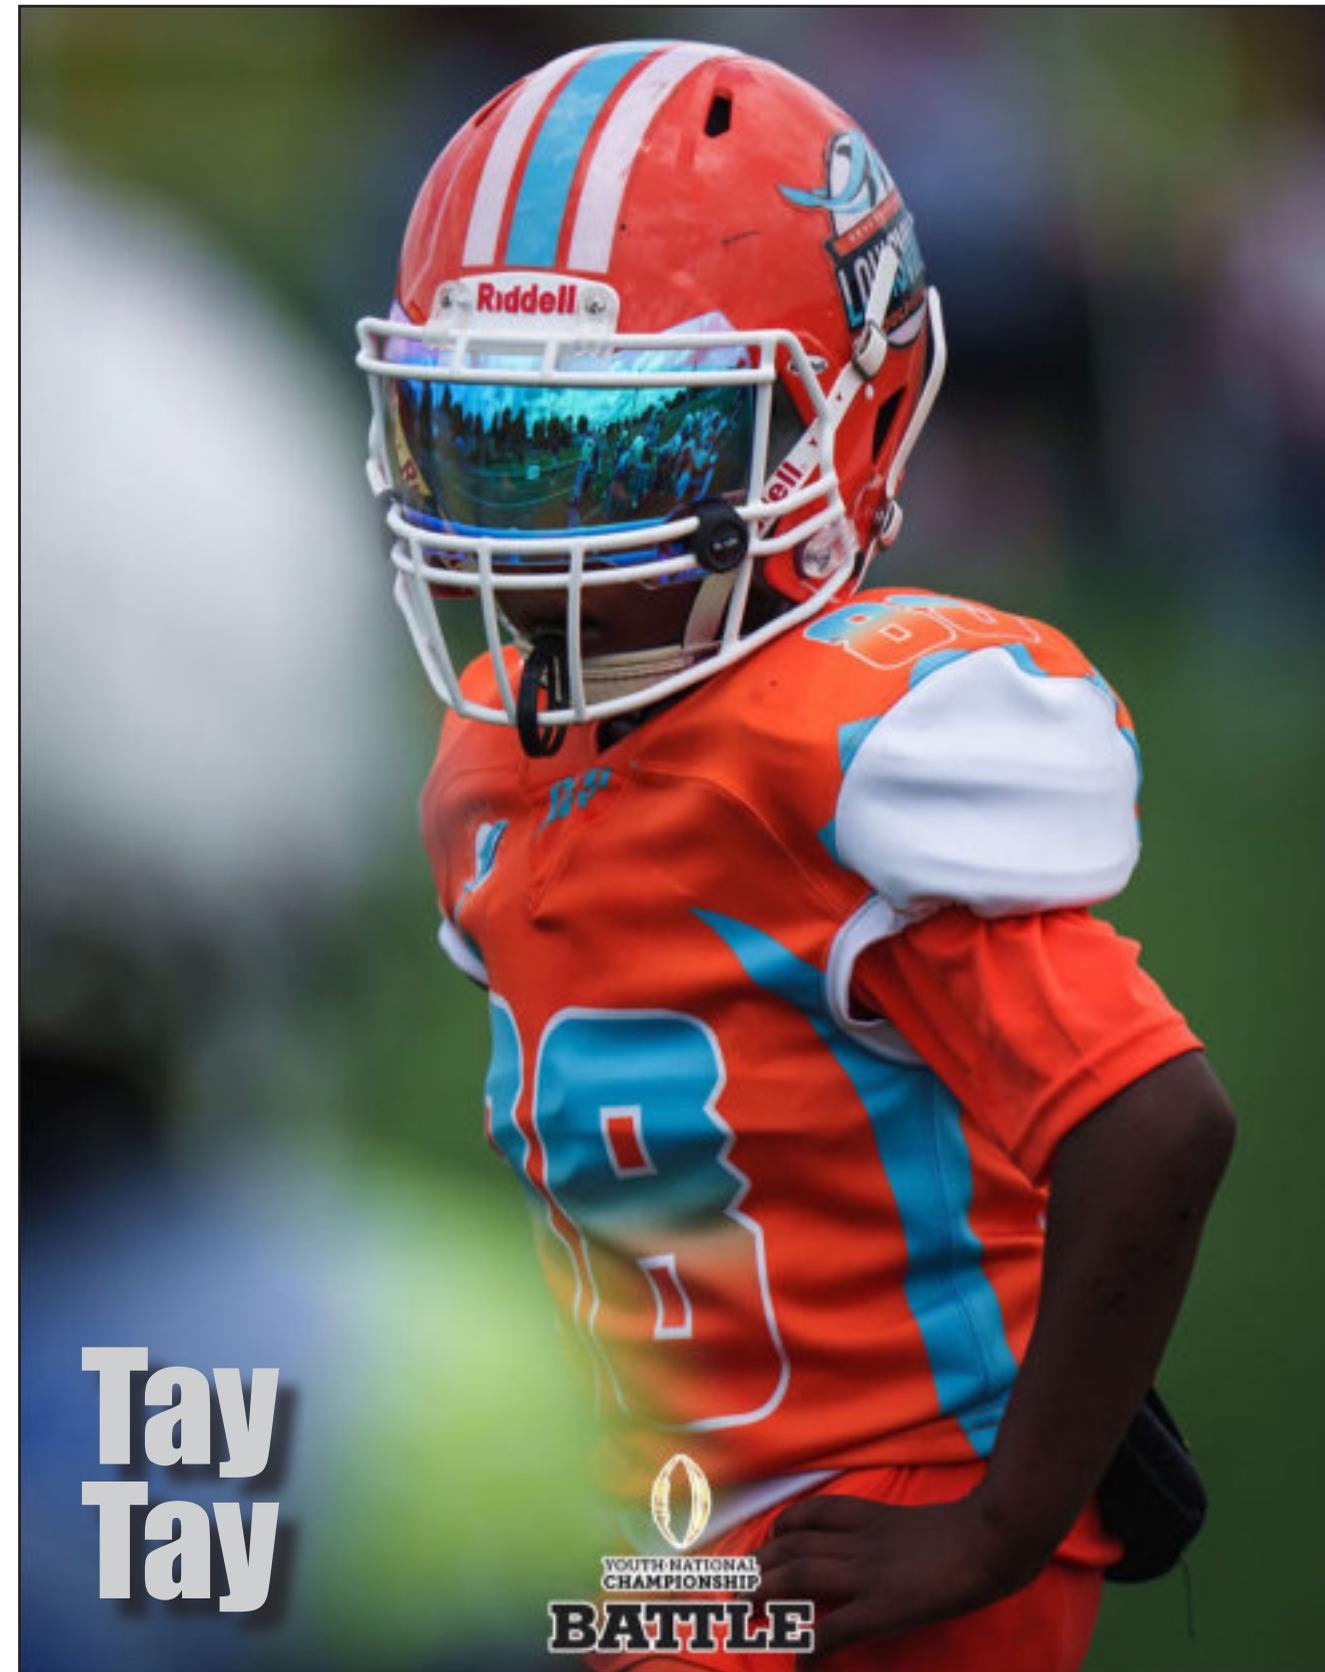

My dream is, to make it to the NFL and take care of my mother. My mother, has always been the light of my life and biggest supporter on and off the field. She has never missed a moment of my life, I always see her face and hear her voice in the stands. My mother is my #1 fan.

My challenges are, traveling and playing against kids bigger and better than me. However, I am not scared to take a hit or give one, but I know anywhere I go there will be someone bigger and better. I will not bag down and always play with my heart!

My achievements are, I have made it to the biggest tournament 2 years in a row in youth football which is The All American Bowl. My first year getting picked was 2020-2021. I played against top ranked teams in the nation. My first game, I and my team took the win, the second game to get to the championship we weren't so lucky. That year was the first time I ever played in freezing weather along with snow, and still played my best. My second time getting picked was this year 2022-2023, and I will play in Dallas, TX. I and my team are ranked #11 in the nation and one of the top teams out of Louisville, KY.

DeVante Parker once said "IF THE BALL IS IN MY AREA ITS MINE!" by far my favorite football slogan. And he's from my hometown and became a Miami Dolphin, I know I can and will get there one day.
