Darrian Landon Cain is a bad man with that baseball bat in his hands. Playing for THE LOT 11u out of Quartz Hill, Ca and multiple invites to Baseball Youth ALL American games, Darrian is no stranger to "West Coast" baseball. He is a leader in every since of the word and makes the other players around him better. When Darrian gets older he wants to try and pursue a collegiate baseball scholarship hopefully getting to the MLB. He also wants to open a facility so kids can train for sports while learning how to brand and market themselves. His mother and father are his biggest supporters and love getting behind Darrian pushing him to his goals.

Hello My name is Thomas Jamar Simpson JR. Some people call me "TJ" because I am named after my father. I'm originally from Savannah Georgia. My mother moved me and my sister to North Carolina for a better education and better opportunities. This is my first year playing any sports. I've been practicing since I was 3, throwing around the Football and Basketball outside in the yard. My Grandma Fredia brought me my first basketball Hoop for Christmas one year. When I started playing football I wanted to quit everyday, but my mother wouldn't let me . She said, "I see this in you and I will not allow you to give up. " When I started playing people were shocked that this was my first time ever playing . But it's in my blood , because my father played Football and Basketball in High School and College. I have had 18 Touchdowns , 15 tackles, 7 Sacks all in my first year of Football. My Basketball season has just started but so far 5 3 pointers and 7 steals. So I'm a born athlete and I pray to God everyday that the skills he has stored upon me, are shown in a way to give him the praise. I plan on taking this all the way. High School, College, then Pro . I'm a big Philadelphia Eagles Fan. So I would want to play for The Eagles as the Quarter Back #1. I hope that I can help others in need to have a happy life. My motto is "Always have a willing hand to help someone. You might be the only one that does" By Roy T. Bennett.
