I struggle with flexibility and pulling my scorpion. I use to want to give up or believe I couldn't but kept working on it and see so much improvement. I love seeing myself grow and not worry about winning or doing what everyone else can. Working through anxiety and asthma has also been challenging. I hope to be a doctor someday and also a dance teacher!

Anna has been modeling for my clothing line Colors Are Beautiful for 4 years. I was so glad when she hit me up on Model Mayhem wanting to work with me. I was browsing through her portfolio and I like what I saw. She is honest, reliable and values any clothing brand. She also makes all of my genre of clothing come to life through photos. I am looking forward to working with her again for future projects.

Damyah has been modeling for me for a year. She was also in my Virtual Fashion Show along with her Mom Dana Hopson when they both slayed on the virtual runway. I am so glad that I got to work with the both of them. I actually met Dana through Model Mayhem and that's when she told me that Damyah has been modeling for a bit. Damyah is also a Dancer, Choreographer and Actress. So you can say that she Multi-talented. We also share the same faith which is Jehovah's Witnesses. So Modeling obviously runs in their family. Montle
Moratwa Mashigo

Montle Moratwa is a 2 year old princess from Emalahleni in Mpumalanga, South Africa. This 2 year old is not only a beauty but a mini brainiac and talented also. She is a social media influencer and works with big brands like Portia M Baby Skin Products, Crazy Crafts, West Pack and Cassie Ally mineral kids make up and an online book store Maya Baby Store. The 2 year old strongly advocates early learning, she proves that it is never too early to start learning as she can read, do mathematics such as addition and subtraction. She is a busy girl, she isn't only taking up space but being impactful, she inspires everyone around her to not only be better but to do better also.

The 2 year old started modeling when she was only 6 months old when an Instagram boutique asked that she model their clothes and mommy accepted the request, the boutique used to send Montle clothes to model. Mommy then decided to enrol her to a modeling academy MLTA_SA Models when she turned 1 year old and has graduated in her first phase of modeling last year 2021 where she was awarded a prestigious award in best personality. She has then been busy working with brands that discover her on social media, people just love her energy and personality or better yet her confident self.

Montle recently bagged an international brand,

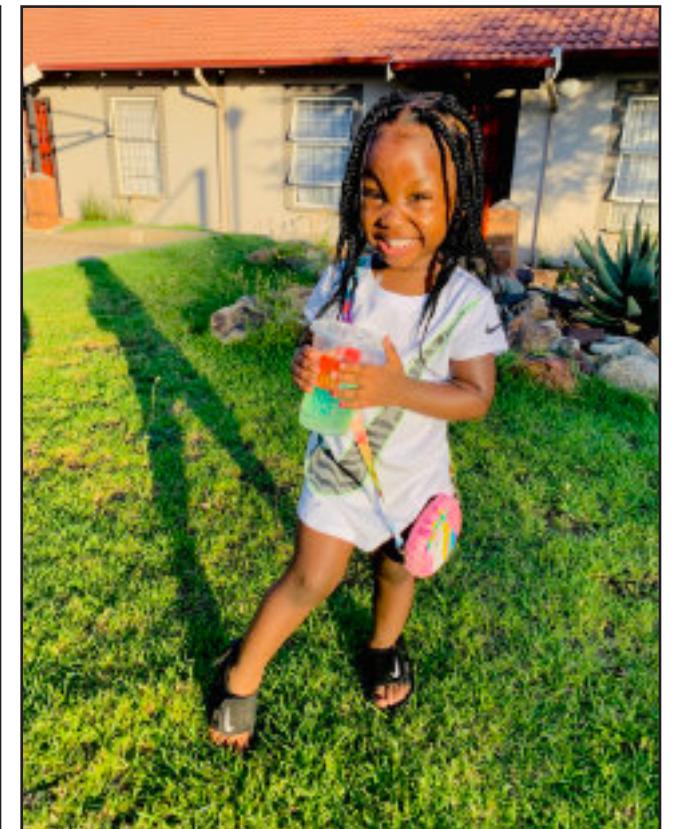

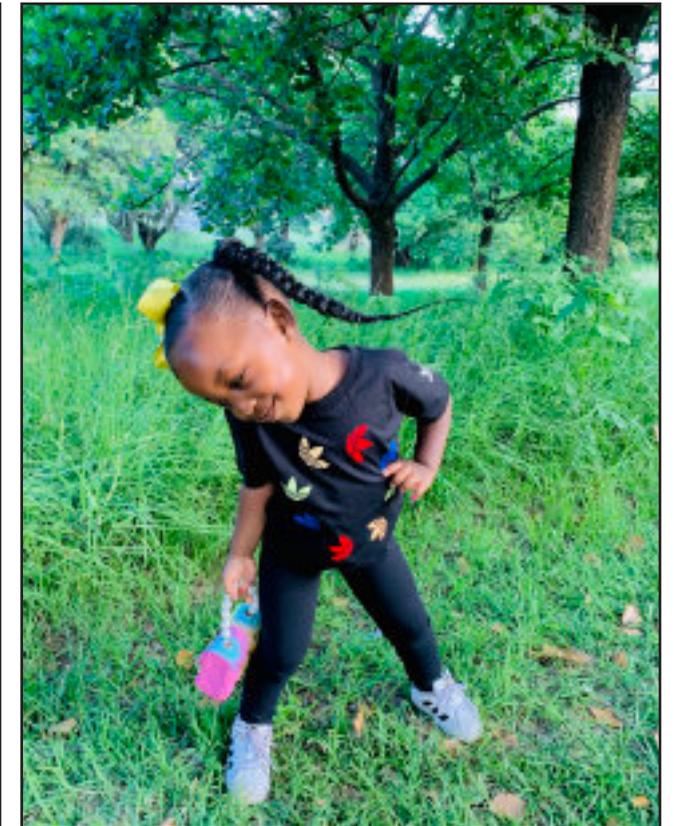

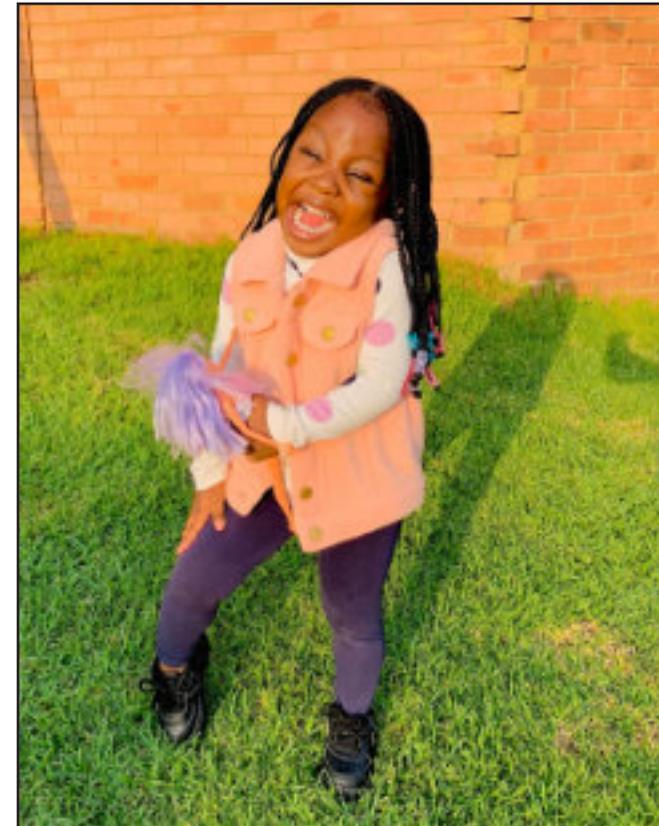

Rae Dior Boutique in the US as a brand ambassador of the Boutique. The founder of the boutique Wells, used various social media platforms to find kids across the Country (US) with large followings and Montle Moratwa was selected as one of the eight out-of-state ambassadors. It was after Wells spoke with the little girl's mom that she realised that Moratwa was located not only out of Louisiana but outside of the country. "When Moratwa's mom replied back to me, South Africa, I could have lost my mind" Wells said. "Montle literally has the entire package; she is beautiful, smart and stylish! Montle Moratwa is my first out of country brand ambassador which makes me ecstatic. Never in a million years would I have thought that I would have a well known kid ambassador from South Africa promoting my daughter's boutique."

Young brand ambassador, Montle Moratwa Mashigo has worked with locally and international brands. She is still on the lookout to work with other brands in and around the world.

"Children are born beautiful and genius, it is our responsibility as parents to help them discover their God given talents and nature them, help build their confidence by words of affirmations and good compliments." Montle's Mom said.
