I just want the world to see beauty at its purest. I do work out but I work out enough to keep myself in shape. I'm not worried about making myself the thinnest and sexiest girl in the room, I just want to feel good about myself. I struggled with my looms my entire life because j have two front teeth that are big, so I always got called buck tooth Tamara and it sucked. I always thought I wouldn't be good enough but I don't believe that now. I love when people tell me they live my style, and my attitude. I don't need the whole world to know my name, I just want the world to know I was here at some point.

My dreams are to become a successful actor, mechanical engineer and illustrator. I love trains. I can name any train by its sounds. I also love drawing. I have invested a lot of time writing short stories and have illustrated a few during the pandemic.

One of my goals are to continue helping people from near and far. I volunteer with my sister at our local community pantry. We are the youngest of volunteers. Our goal is to have our own pantry to encourage more children to volunteer.

Some of my achievements are running in NYC Road Runners. That was my first time appearance on a TV news channel. I have competed in school speeches in Arabic language were I was placed first, second and third. My biggest achievement so far is attending Society Performer Academy for Acting. I trained for about 8 weeks, did my Talent Showcase and was signed by one of the top agency, ZURI in NYC, which is represents both NY and LA.

In the beginning, I struggle with being accepted which I had to learn to be myself and be comfortable. Prioritizing school, acting and social life was a huge challenge in the beginning. Thanks to my mom who is my number one support and who helped me through. We are still figuring it out as we go along. The good thing are that we are not afraid to ask questions and we are willing to learn.

I am a Bay Area native. I started my modeling journey in 2020 in the middle of the pandemic. During lockdown, I started doing shoots with handmade props on DIY sets all made with my dearest friends. It was something to pass the time and to boost my confidence. I had supportive friends with the similar goals and we made it away to bond and achieve them together. Finally, my close friend Dylann, Took professional photos of me and I submitted them onto a modeling group on Facebook.

Eventually, it turned into a monthly pursuit to work with different photographers in the bay area. I am hoping to spread body positivity being that I am a apple shaped model. I want to show girls like me that Beauty has different spectrums. But in all spectrums, confidence is a necessity.

Liepa

Liepa is a real chatterbox and very passionate about life. She is keen to try as many things as possible and most importantly have fun while trying. Vivid imagination and curiosity inspired love for reading – it's so fun when you can relate with certain characters. One of the greatest passions in Liepa's life is performing arts. From going to shows to acting in them, from singing in choir as well as all Matilda and Lion King songs, to playing piano and dancing, with street dancing being the latest adventure. Liepa is also a keen swimmer, gymnast and acrobat – it's so hard to choose a favourite activity. Cameras are also not unfamiliar to Liepa - photo sessions are a fun activity to do. Being the best dress designer is the ambition for the future. But for now, Liepa enjoys nature, animals and camping.
