My name is Saylor Ladnier my friends call me Say Rae . I am a eight year old level eight gymnast . I Started gymnastics at age 5 on pre-team, age 6 level two, age 7 went through levels eight years old I am training level eight. it's been quite a whirlwind but I love gymnastics. I am homeschooled and I love it. My dream is to go to the Olympics but first I would love to go to Hope's and be on the national team. My challenges would be that I'm very small but I am a very hard worker I am very dedicated to the sport. And no matter what I just make sure that I'm always the hardest worker in the room. I write down my goals every day and I work hard to accomplish those goals. I also have long-term goals written on my mirror

I am currently an Xcel silver USAG gymnast. I love gymnastics and hope to one day be a coach. I have learned so much from my coaches and I want to do the same for other young girls. Hard work and determination are only a few of the lessons I have learned and would love to pass that on to future gymnasts. I also would love to become a teacher, and maybe a coach part time! I want to be able to make a difference in someone else's life and contribute towards the future of the world. College is definitely in my future, I am currently a straight A student. I cannot wait to see what my future holds.
